Damage to temples in Bangladesh

265. SHRI KARNENDU BHATTACHARJEE: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the news-item captioned, "Temple burnt, idols in 3 attacks in Bangladesh" appearing in the Asian Age dated the 9th October, 2002;

(b) if so, the details thereof and Government's reaction thereto; and

(c) the steps taken/proposed to be taken to take up the matter with the Government of Bangladesh and impress upon them the need to protect the religious freedom of the minorities in that country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI DIGVIJAY SINGH): (a) Yes.

(b) and (c) There were reports of some attacks on temples and puja mandaps during the recent Durga Puja festival in Bangladesh. Following the attacks, Government of Bangladesh had issued instructions for providing special security including deployment of Bangladesh Rifles to ensure peaceful celebrations of Durga Puja. The Home Minister and other senior leaders publicly assured the minorities of the Government's commitment to ensuring peaceful celebrations of Durga Puja. Following the tight security measures, the Durga Puja celebrations were held in 17000 puja mandaps throughout the country.

Earlier, after the elections in Bangladesh in October 2001, the Government had noted with serious concern reports of attacks on minorities in Bangladesh. This was taken up at various levels including at the highest level with the Government of Bangladesh. Action has been reportedly initiated on many of the perpetrators of the violence.

Cancellation of Deputy Prime Minister's Russia visit
